LODGING

Affordable comfort is the key to lodging choices in Addison, with the Hampton Inn & Suites Addison, Hilton Garden Inn Addison, and Howard Johnson Addison O'Hare.

DINING

Lake Street is the place to be in Addison for dining, with something for just about any appetite. Top off your meal with a movie at the Marcus Addison Cinema or head over to Dave & Buster's for food and fun.

SHOPPING

Addison offers a wealth of shopping options. Five of the village's six major shopping centers can be found along Lake Street, the village's primary commercial artery.

The village is also close to Oakbrook Center and Woodfield Mall, and it is convenient to Chicago's Loop and Magnificent Mile.

ATTRACTIONS

The Addison Center for the Arts features performing and visual arts. It offers quality art programs for self-exploration, skill development and aesthetic awareness.

The Addison Park District includes 25 parks representing a total of about 284 acres of green space, along with two community recreation centers, an enriching preschool program, a vibrant senior center, an outdoor family aquatic center, a state-of-the-art fitness club with an indoor pool, and a four-season golf facility.

Built in the 1920s, The Preserve at Oak Meadows is an 18-hole tree-lined classic and one of the most historically significant courses in Chicago's golf community.

K1 Speed amusement center features two go-kart race tracks and CyberSport, a hybrid combination of lacrosse, basketball and hockey. The facility offers dining and catering options for groups up to 700.

Stardust Bowl is the largest bowling center in Illinois and one of the largest in the country. In addition to 84 lanes, the center includes four lounges, a diner, billiard room, game room and full-service pro shop.

The Addison Historical District runs along Army Trail Boulevard, east of Kennedy Drive. It includes St. Paul Lutheran Church, the Addison Century House, and the Addison Historical Museum, as well as three historically significant memorials.

Parkland Area

The Village of Addison takes pride in being an affordable community to both visit and call home. Addison is home to twenty percent of all DuPage County manufacturing operations, including Pampered Chef and major operating facilities for UPS and Nabisco. The village is just 12 miles from O'Hare International Airport, 20 miles west of Chicago's Loop, and convenient to major highways and mass transportation. A great pride for Addison is the Rock 'N Wheels summer series that has grown into a regional favorite and held on Thursday nights throughout June, July, and August on the Village Green. Festivities include free entertainment, cruise nights, kids rides, and food vendors from Addison restaurants.
