LODGING

Itasca offers accommodations to fit every taste and budget:

- Extended Stay America Itasca
- Holiday Inn Itasca
- Hyatt Place Chicago/Itasca
- Westin Chicago Northwest
- Eaglewood Resort & Spa—featuring an 18-hole championship golf course, a 6 lane bowling alley, a full-service luxury wellness spa and other recreational opportunities.

DINING

From quick and casual to gourmet plates, you'll find it in Itasca. Enjoy fine dining at Burnham's at the Eaglewood Resort & Spa or Seared at the Westin Chicago Northwest. Step back in time at Daddy O's Diner or enjoy some good food and craft beer at Fox & Turtle.

SHOPPING

Small shops offering everything from jewelry to flowers to golf clubs and more are located in or near Itasca's village center.

Itasca is convenient to Woodfield Mall, Stratford Square Mall, and Old Town in Bloomingdale. Other popular shopping venues in the area include Oakbrook Center and Yorktown Center.

Shopping in Chicago is just a 25-mile drive on the expressway or 45-minute ride by Metra commuter train.

ATTRACTIONS

Itasca's own Overshadowed Theatrical Productions delivers quality, family-friendly drama that entertains and inspires.

Itasca's robust Park District features nine parks and over 43 acres for recreation, relaxation and wildlife observation. The park district also offers a recreation and fitness center, waterpark and Historical Depot Museum.

The Springbrook Nature Center is a vibrant natural resource for education and conservation with two miles of hiking trails through a shady woodland, fragrant prairie and lush cattail marsh. It includes a visitor's center offering a variety of programs for families.

The Forest Preserve District of DuPage County owns and operates three public golf courses in the area. Eaglewood Resort & Spa also has a golf course and there are two private golf clubs nearby: Itasca Country Club and Medinah Country Club, home to numerous PGA tournaments including the 2012 Ryder Cup.

Parkland Area

Anytime is a great time to visit Itasca. The village offers a revitalized town center and residents who place a high priority on quality of life and a strong sense of community.

The Riverwalk is an important component in making Itasca a pedestrian friendly community. It links the traditional downtown area to the municipal complex, water park, library and nature center, and features two decorative areas to relax and enjoy the setting.

Itasca has its own Metra commuter station, making it convenient to travel to Chicago and surrounding communities. It is also convenient to O'Hare and Midway International Airports and area expressways.
