Warrenville is rich with dining opportunities, including recognizable chain restaurants and hometown establishments such as Al's Pizza and Towne Tap. Area favorites include Eddie Merlot's Warrenville and Two Brothers Brewing Company and Tap House, a family owned and operated brewpub.

SHOPPING

Warrenville offers a variety of unique shops and retail venues. The award-winning Cantera development surrounds the I-88/Winfield Road interchange and offers a 17 screen newly renovated movie theater, family entertainment complex, 24/7 world-class fitness center, Super Target store, and nearly 20 restaurants serving area residents, corporate offices and visitors. Warrenville is also close to several other major shopping areas and a comfortable drive to downtown Chicago.

ATTRACTIONS

Located on the banks of the West Branch of the DuPage River, Warrenville is surrounded by five forest preserves and the grounds of Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory (Fermilab). This provides over 10,000 acres of open space for recreational opportunities such as fishing, canoeing, cross country skiing and camping. Fermilab offers regular tours, concerts, art exhibits, films, science lectures and folk dancing events.

Nearby Cantigny Park offers 500 acres of vast formal gardens, nature trails, picnic areas, an award-winning 27-hole golf course, a 9-hole youth links course, banquet facilities, and two history-rich military museums.

Abundant with art and sculpture, Warrenville has produced a number of both locally and nationally known artists. The Warrenville Historical Museum & Art Gallery, located in an 1858 Greek Revival style former Methodist Church, was once used as an art studio by the Albright family, including Ivan who painted the famous "Picture of Dorian Gray."

A city with a history rich in American tradition, this family-friendly community is located in the middle of DuPage County's nationally recognized I-88 research and development corridor. Warrenville is one of the 50 safest cities in Illinois and named a Bronze Level Bicycle Friendly Community by Ride Illinois. Warrenville's 30 miles of multi-use paths interconnect various regional recreational trails, providing direct links to the Illinois Prairie Path, the West Branch of the DuPage River Regional Trail, and DuPage Forest Preserve trails with a trail density that is the second highest in the county.

Warrenville is convenient to O'Hare and Midway International Airports.

DuMore Page
No place in the U.S. offers you quite the slice of Americana as the Midwest. Just 20 miles west of Chicago, DuPage county is one of the wealthiest, healthiest and greenest counties in Illinois, offering a unique combination of sophistication and local charm. Be prepared to experience world-class dining, high-end shopping and historical attractions.
