DINING

Wheaton's historic downtown offers a variety of unique dining choices starting with Suzette's Creperie to Wok 'n Fire, coffee at Five and Hoek Coffee Co. and perhaps dinner at Muldoon's Irish Pub topped off with dessert at Kimmer's Ice Cream. This is a small sample of the many choices in and around Wheaton. Visit DowntownWheaton.com for a full listing.

SHOPPING

Historic Downtown Wheaton is also filled with locally-owned shops. It is a pedestrian friendly destination where a number of family-friendly events are held throughout the year. Farther south, the Danada neighborhood offers shopping at Town Square Wheaton, Rice Lake Square, Danada Square East, West, and Shops of Wheaton.

The city is convenient to Oakbrook Center, Yorktown Center and Stratford Square Mall. It is also a short drive or Metra commuter train ride from Chicago's Loop and the Magnificent Mile.

ATTRACTIONS

Wheaton is home to one of the jewels of the entire Chicagoland region, Cantigny Park including the McCormick House, First Division Museum, Championship Golf and spectacular gardens. Other notable attractions in Wheaton include the DuPage County Historical Museum. This special museum is housed in what was formerly known as the Adams Memorial Library. The building was erected in 1891 by John Quincy Adams as a gift to the community of Wheaton in memory of his late wife, Marilla Phipps Adams.

There is a dynamic community arts scene in Wheaton including the Westside Improv Studio and Wheaton Drama. Other cultural amenities include the Billy Graham Center and Museum and the Theosophical Society of North America.

The popular Illinois Prairie Path runs through Wheaton branching north to the Elgin branch and south to the Aurora branch.
